Too Many Words

Home Sites Ready at Narrows Lake

The oldest rule of language is, never use four words when two will do.

Worst offense of the 20th century has been committed by the Washington bureaucrats, retreating to a program "at the local level," at the state level, at the federal level," and so forth.

They passed their bad habit on to professional mouthpieces, and you began to hear "level" talks at civic clubs, in the schools, and on the radio. But "level" as they use it looks redundant and affected in print — which it is.

And therefore it is the sacred duty of the press to ridicule the phrase and the phrase-monger out of existence.

Here's the low-down on "level": You say: This program takes effect "at the adult level" — four quoted words. But what you really mean is, it's "for adults" — and the quoted words are only two.

Don't be a monkey. Talk the way a man's supposed to talk.

No one on earth is so ridiculous as an affected ass.

The Corps of Engineers at Vicksburg, Miss., announced this week-end that home-seekers at Narrows Lake will receive their bid applications during this week.

There are more than 2,000 applicants. Each will get a map of the lot areas, as a guide to make his selection. The bids will be returned to Vicksburg, and a drawing within 30 days will determine the final allocation of properties.

The lots, as you know, are to be leased from the federal government at $25 to $50 a year, for 20 years with option to renew — and resale between individuals at a profit is forbidden.

So the drama of the creation of a vast new tourist and holiday playground is unfolding north of us at Murfreesboro. It's the biggest local story of our times — the coming of a deep-water lake to the mountain edge of our prairie country.

The electric power now being generated at Narrows is important, of course, but nothing stirs human interest quite so much as a big new lake. The very thought of it gets people into automobiles and sends them packing off to the hills and the sky-blue water.

Brother, those times we talked of — they're here!

2 Autos, 45 Gallons Liquor Seized in Raid

There negroes were arrested, two 1949 automobiles seized and 45 gallons of moonshine liquor taken in a raid about 8 o'clock last night 3 miles west of Emmet.

Arrested were Sid Williams, Luther Bishop and George Denman. Hope negroes, all will be charged with transporting untaxed liquor. Under federal law the two automobiles, a 1949 Ford and a 1949 Hudson were confiscated. A fourth man escaped. Identity of the auto owners was not immediately determined.

The raid was led by State Officers Murphy and Downing, who turned the trio over to federal alcoholic officers.

Forms for Site on Narrows Being Mailed

Home makers at Narrows Lake will receive their bid application from the Corps of Engineers at Vicksburg, Miss., some time this week, it was announced today.

Maps of the lot areas will be mailed to more than 2,000 applicants.

The bids are to be returned to Vicksburg and a drawing for the Narrows Dam within 30 days. Parks Hunter of Murfreesboro, president of the Southwest Arkansas Hospitality Association, confirmed this information with Tom Carter, Engineer representative. Friday, Hunter also said that more lots are scheduled to be let soon.

The first lots are located on Cowhide Cove. They are an acre or more in size and will rent for between $25 and $50 per year. Lots may be leased for 20 years with an option to renew. Resales may not be made at a profit.

Three commercial sites will be let at the same time as the home sites. Approximately 300 persons have indicated an interest in these sites, which would be suitable for docks, boat shelters and tourist courts.

Roads in the area are being built by the Engineers and county authorities. The Game and Fish than a million young fish in the lake.

Florida Convict Is Captured at Prescott

Little Rock, June 12 — (P) — A hitchhiking escaped convict who specialized in robbing truck drivers has been captured at Prescott, Ark., after Roy Herbert Stinebaugh, of Farmerville, Tex., had been robbed and left tied to a tree near Gurdon, Ark.

Peterson said Rambo, whose glass eye was a clue in the widespread search for a crusing criminal, escaped last April from a Florida prison, where he still has more than 200 years to serve on armed robbery charges.

He was arrested in Prescott, Ark., after Roy Herbert Stinebaugh, of Farmerville, Tex., had been robbed and left tied to a tree near Gurdon, Ark.

Brought to state police he quarters here yesterday, Peterson said Rambo boastfully reported that he tried to hitch rides with truck drivers because they usually had sums of money after making deliveries.

Peterson said that Rambo admitted: Beating and shooting Carl Pursinger, 38, Kansas City, and leaving him tied to a tree near Vandallia, Ill. He said that he drove off in Pursinger's tank truck and sold the load of gasoline to a nearby service station. Pursinger said his attacker told him "I'll have to kill you because I'm an escapee from the Missouri pen." The truck driver, the father of three children, is recovering in a Vandallia hospital.

Abducting Charles Humphrey, 50, Morrilton, Ark., a paint operator at a drive-in the night of May 29. A short distance away, he forced Humphrey to disrobe, hit him in the head with a pistol and drove off. State police found the car later that night in North Little Rock, but while they circled the block to investigate, the driver disappeared.

Robbing Stinebaugh, who picked him up near Newport Ark. Stinebaugh, who was left bound with adhesive tape in the woods near Gurdon, freed himself and reported the robbery. State Trooper Guy Downing and Prescott Police Chief Luther Miller spotted Rambo in Stinebaugh's truck a short time later and arrested him.

Peterson said Rambo, a native of White County, Ark., related that he served time in the Arkansas boys industrial school, was sent to the Arkansas penitentiary for car theft, and was on parole from the Louisiana penitentiary when he was first sentenced in Florida for armed robbery.

Dr. Sander May Get License Back

Wolfeboro, N. H., June 12 — (P) — The head of the New Hampshire state board of registration in medicine "presumes" his five-member body will reinstate Dr. Hermann N. Sander.

Dr. J. Paul Dye, board president, said last night he believes Dr. Sander's license to practice will be restored "within a few days after he makes application for reinstatement."

The board revoked the 42-year-old Canadian physician's license in April shortly after he was acquitted of murder in the death of a cancer patient. The state group said however, that he would apply for reinstatement on June 19.

Attorney Ralph E. Langdell, counsel for Dr. Sander, said the application for reinstatement will be filed before June 19 to hasten consideration by the board.

Dr. Sander declined to comment. The state charged at the physician's trial that he killed Mrs. Abbie C. Borroto, 59, by injecting air into her veins as she lay near death from cancer. The defense admitted the air injections, but contended that the woman already was dead.

Dr. Dye said "the implication in this case was obvious and the board agreed Dr. Sander should be suspended and given the right to seek reinstatement later."

"The case required disciplinary action," he added. "I think everything will be all right."

'Black Hand' Group Active in U. S.

Washington, June 12 — (P) — Senate crime investigators were reported today to have evidence that the Sicilian Black Hand society "is responsible for much big-time crime" in the United States.

A committee source who asked to remain anonymous said the senate's special crime investigating group has turned its attention to the American operations of the society, which also is known as the Majia.

Chairman Kefauver (D-Tenn) confirmed that the committee is looking into the Majia's operations and added that U. S. Narcotics Commissioner H. J. Anslinger has given the group some information.

"I can't discuss it in detail at this time," Kefauver said, "but his testimony will be a big help in our drive against organized crime."

Russian Bloc Boycott's UN Meet — Reds Warn Boundary Squabble Could Mean War

Lake Success, June 12 — (P) — In the absence of Russia and other communist countries, Yugoslavia tried unsuccessfully today to get Communist China invited to the United Nations conference on technical assistance to backward areas.

Shortly after the worldwide meeting opened Yugoslav Delegate Miljenko Filipovic raised the point that the Chinese Communists were not represented and formally moved that they be given a bid. His proposal was rejected, 26 to 8, with 13 countries abstaining.

Russia and eight other Communist countries notified the U. N. over the weekend that they intended to boycott the conference because of the Chinese representation issue. In addition to Russia, the following countries took part in the boycott: White Russia, Soviet Ukraine, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Albania, Bulgaria, Hungary and Romania.

Yugoslavia also questioned the right of Korea to be represented by a delegate of the South Korean government, since Northern Korea is ruled by a different regime. The issue was referred to the credentials committee.

Hernan Santa Cruz of Chile was elected chairman of the three-day meeting, called by the general assembly to create an interlateral fund for expanded technical assistance.

The Russians previously had either boycotted or withdrawn from 29 U. N. organs since Jan. 10 in protest against continued participation of the Chinese Nationalists. They want the Chinese Communists to sit in the U. N.

The continuing Soviet walk out-boycott campaign has taken on added significance since the recent talks between U. N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie and Prime Minister Stalin. It shows that Stalin intends to ignore Lie's opposition to the walkout tactics of the Soviet union.

It also is significant that point 6 of Lie's 10-point peace program calls for universal participation in the U. N.'s technical assistance efforts. Soviets refusal to take part, thus, would be a direct slap at Lie's program.

Seventy-seven nations were invited to attend the three-day technical assistance conference. These included the 59 members of the U. N. and 18 other countries that are members of one or more of the U. N. specialized agencies.

The main object of the conference is to learn how much money the U. N. will get for technical assistance purposes. As a result of informal talks, U. N. officials estimated in advance that the total would be something in excess of $20,000,000 for an 18-month period.

A year ago U. N. officials mapped out a technical assistance program that would cost $35,000,000 the first year and $50,000,000 the second year. Long ago, however, they acknowledged they would get nothing like this amount.

The United States, as usual, was expected to be the largest contributor, with an offer of $10,000,000 to $12,500,000. Britain was reported ready to contribute about $1,700,000. U. N. officials said they expected contributions from at least 30 countries.

There has been no indications that Russia will contribute anything, although the Soviet delegation voted along with all the others in the general assembly in favor of the program last fall.

The Majia originally was a secret society of assassins and murderers which existed in Sicily more than 100 years ago. Some of its members are believed to have entered this country around 1850. It was held responsible for the killing of a New Orleans police official in 1890.

Senate Refuses to Shelve Rent Control Bill

Washington, June 12 — (P) — The senate refused today to shelve the rent control bill.

The vote was 44 to 25. The vote was regarded as a general test of senate sentiment toward the question of continuing federal rent controls, now due to expire June 30.

But some of those who voted against putting the bill aside had announced they would vote against the bill on the question of final passage.

The attempt to shelve the bill was made by Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the Republican floor leader. Early last Saturday morning, at the end of a turbulent 10-hour senate session, he moved to send the bill back to the banking committee. Such a action often means killing a measure.

By agreement, a vote on Wherry's motion was put off until today.

For administration leaders, the big question now is when they can get a vote on final passage. Senator Cain (R-Wash) conducted a 12-hour filibuster against the measure last week.

Before the vote, Cain told a reporter that the outcome of it would determine his future plans.

"If there seems to be a fair chance of winning this thing, I'll certainly be ready to take off again," Cain said, as he directed his assistants to assemble a thick stack of ammunition for another long filibuster.

Meanwhile at Fulda, in west Germany, 5,000 refugees from the Polish-occupied section of Germany and from Czechoslovakia staged a protest march and rally against the Polish-German agreement. No incidents were reported.

Transfer of Gold Delayed by Judge

Philadelphia, June 12 — (P) — Federal Judge James P. McGranery today delayed action for an indefinite time on the government's request to transfer Harry Gold, accused of delivering U. S. Atomic secrets to Russia, from Philadelphia to New York where he would have been brought to immediate trial.

The judge, who originally issued the warrant that resulted in the arrest of the 39-year old Philadelphia chemist, granted request of defense counsel to "investigate the background and character of Gold in the city where he lives."

John D. M. Hamilton, former Chairman of the Republican national committee and Gold's court-appointed attorney, said "I don't think it is asking too much that I might be given the opportunity to further examine Gold in this jurisdiction."

"The court knows full well that there are no funds a valuable for defense expenses in this case," Hamilton said. "Additionally, should it become advisable that Gold should enter a plea of guilty — and I am not pre-judging my client — then it feasibly could be made in the jurisdiction where the original complaint was filed."

The original complaint was filed here.

McGrany, in accepting Hamilton's plea, ordered that Gold be continued in $100,000 bail until "I shall act on disposition of the removal warrant." Gold has been lodged in Moyamensing prison since May 23.

Harris Opens Campaign in El Dorado

Congressman Oren Harris sounded the opening guns in his campaign for re-election last night at a meeting attended by constituents representing several counties of the seventh district.

Harris, tagged his chief opponent as a representative of a "special interest group," and said that he intends to base his campaign on his record in Congress.

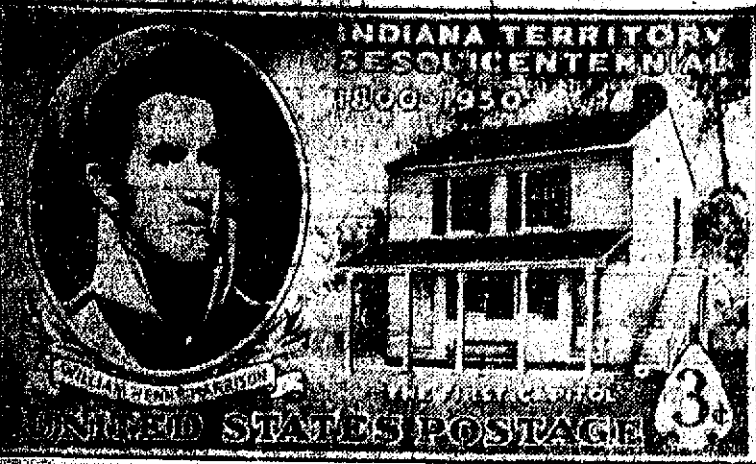

Harris told his audience of some 300 people that he is opposed for re-election by two groups "the left wingers and the special and selfish interest groups."

The address carried over six radio stations (two of which will carry the address in delayed broadcast) was clinched by a charge made by Harris that "these special interests" now have an application with the Navy department for 60,000 acres of timberland.

Naval Ordnance project in Quachita and Calhoun counties and that his opponents is seeking special consideration in connection with the plot of timberland."

Harris did not mention the name of his opponent.

Harris said he would base his campaign on his record.

NO DIRTY WORK HERE—Philadelphia firemen waded through a sea of soap-suds outside a grocery chain warehouse after the building had been flooded by firehose. Nine firemen were injured and 60 others affected by smoke in an eight-hour battle to subdue flames in the block-long warehouse.

INSIDE TRILBY—Trilby, a circus elephant appearing at Gary, Ind., shows everything down to her tonsils as she opens wide to let handler Frank Noel check her gum after extraction of a five-year tooth. With help of 8,000,000 units of penicillin, the gum is healing nicely.

The blonde, pig-tailed Latvian girl is the 150,000th Displaced Person to enter the United States and will be the guest of honor at "I Am an American Day" ceremonies at Washington's Sesquicentennial this month.

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

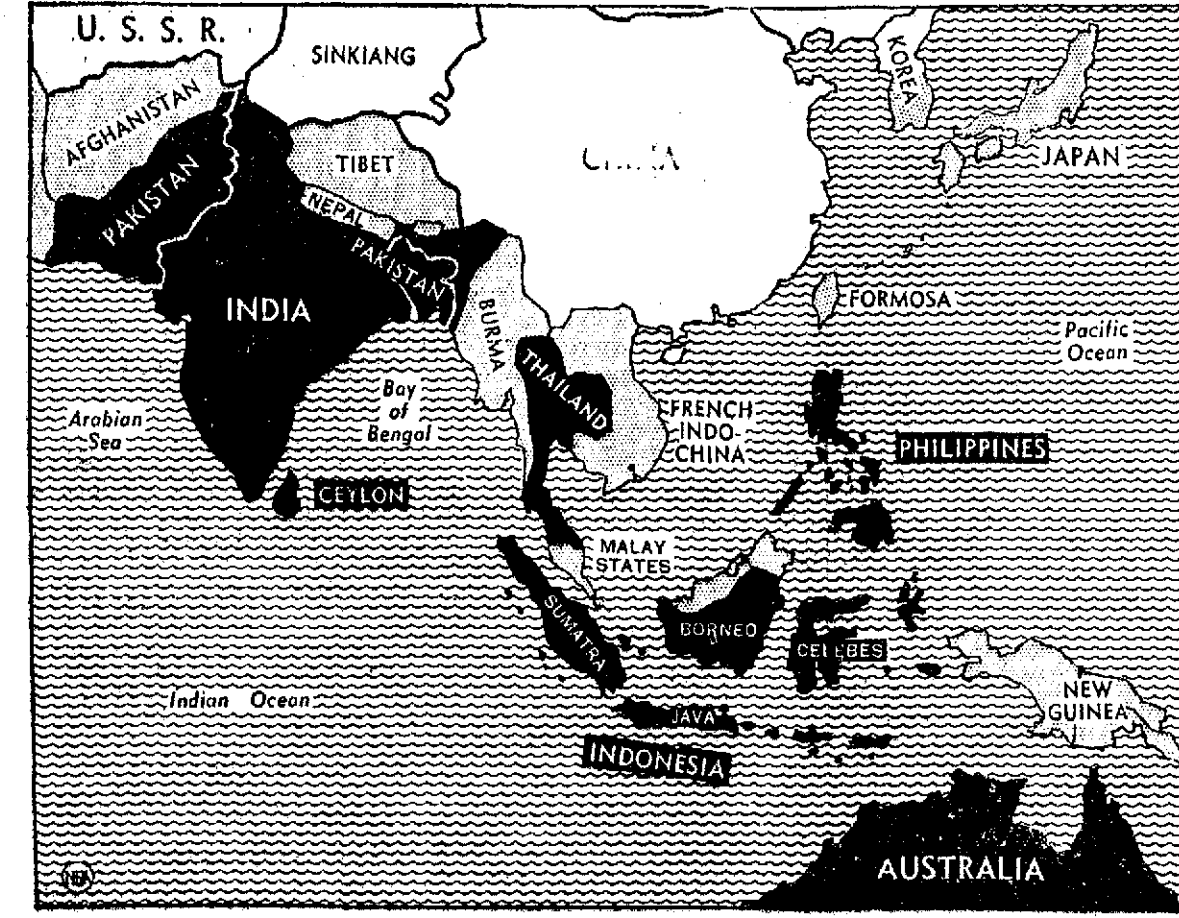

'DOWN THE HOOCH—This was Billy Sunday and some dry-crucading associates in Memphis, Tenn., during prohibition days under the 18th Amendment. But it might have been Izzy Einstein and Moe Smith, prohibition's most famous raiders, or just a group of "drys" out to lick "Old John Barleycorn" wherever they found him. Prohibition lasted from 1919 until 1933, and among its memories—besides the dry crusaders and "revenooers"—are the bootlegger, the speakeasy, the big city gangster, bathtub gin and the hip-pocket flask. In its place today is government-taxed and controlled liquor, and local option. But the battle for and against nation-wide dryness still rages, with people of strong and honest convictions aligned on both sides.

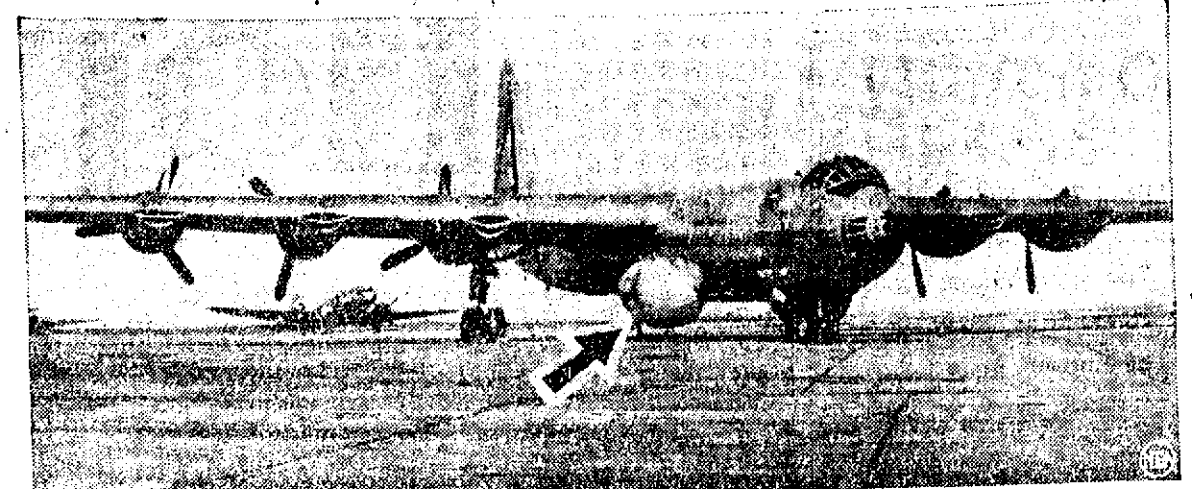

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

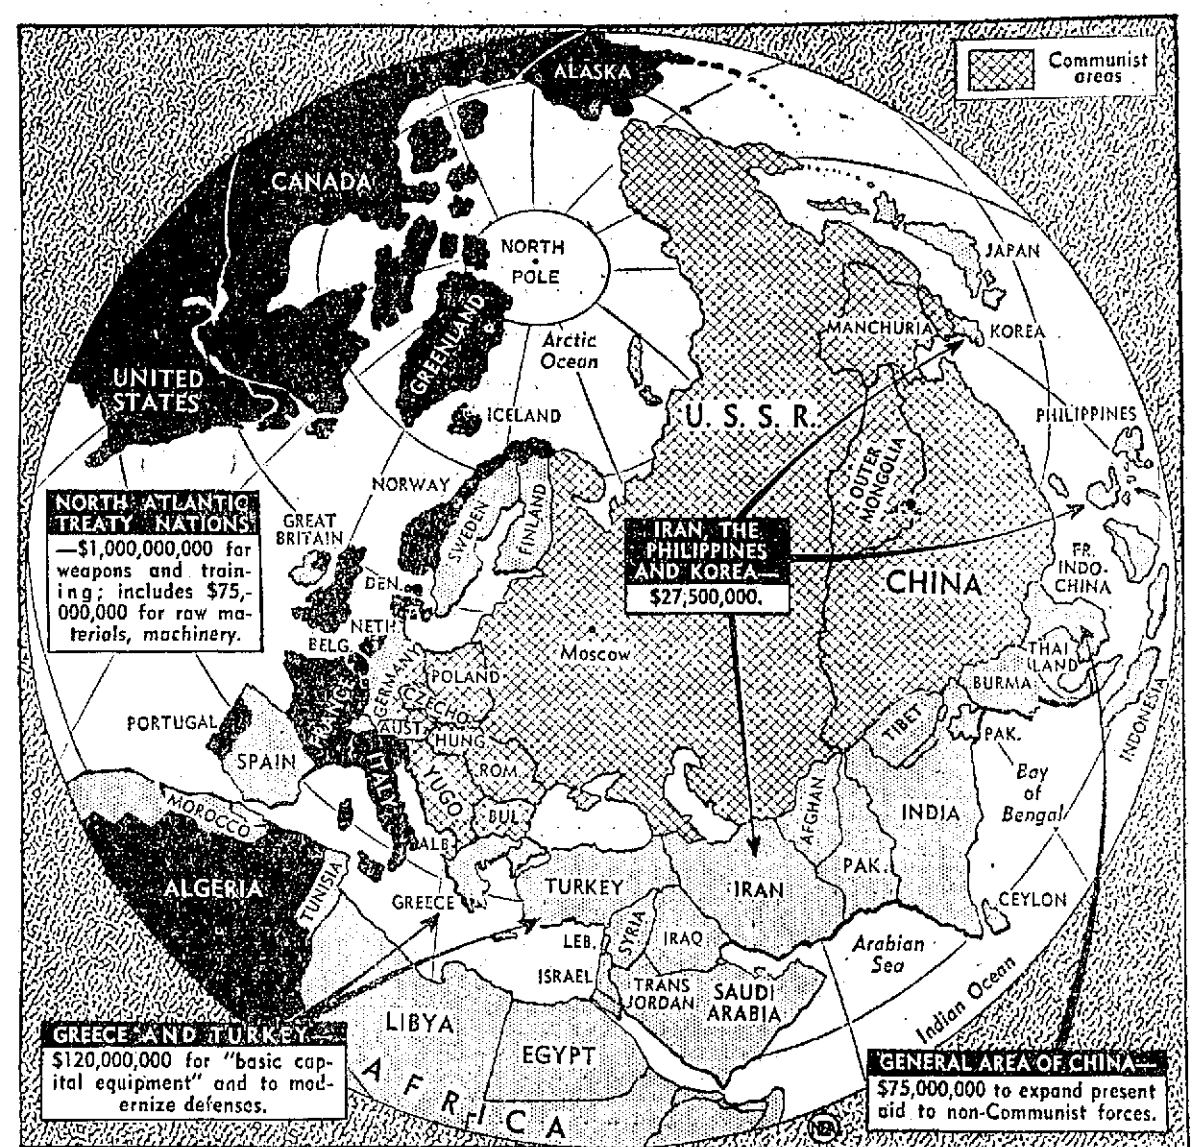

TOP HEROES OF TWO WARS were Sgt. Alvin York, a Tennessee farmer who in the first World War outfought a whole German machinegun battalion with only a rifle and pistol, and Lt. Audie Murphy of Farmersville, Tex., who won his Congressional Medal of Honor for a series of brave feats at Anzio and in southern France. Both men received the nation's highest decoration, and Murphy became known as the "most decorated soldier of World War II." Sergeant York is credited with killing 20 Germans and capturing 132 more while opening the way for an American advance in the Argonne. Among Murphy's feats was the repulse, almost single-handed, of a strong German infantry counter-attack supported by six tanks.

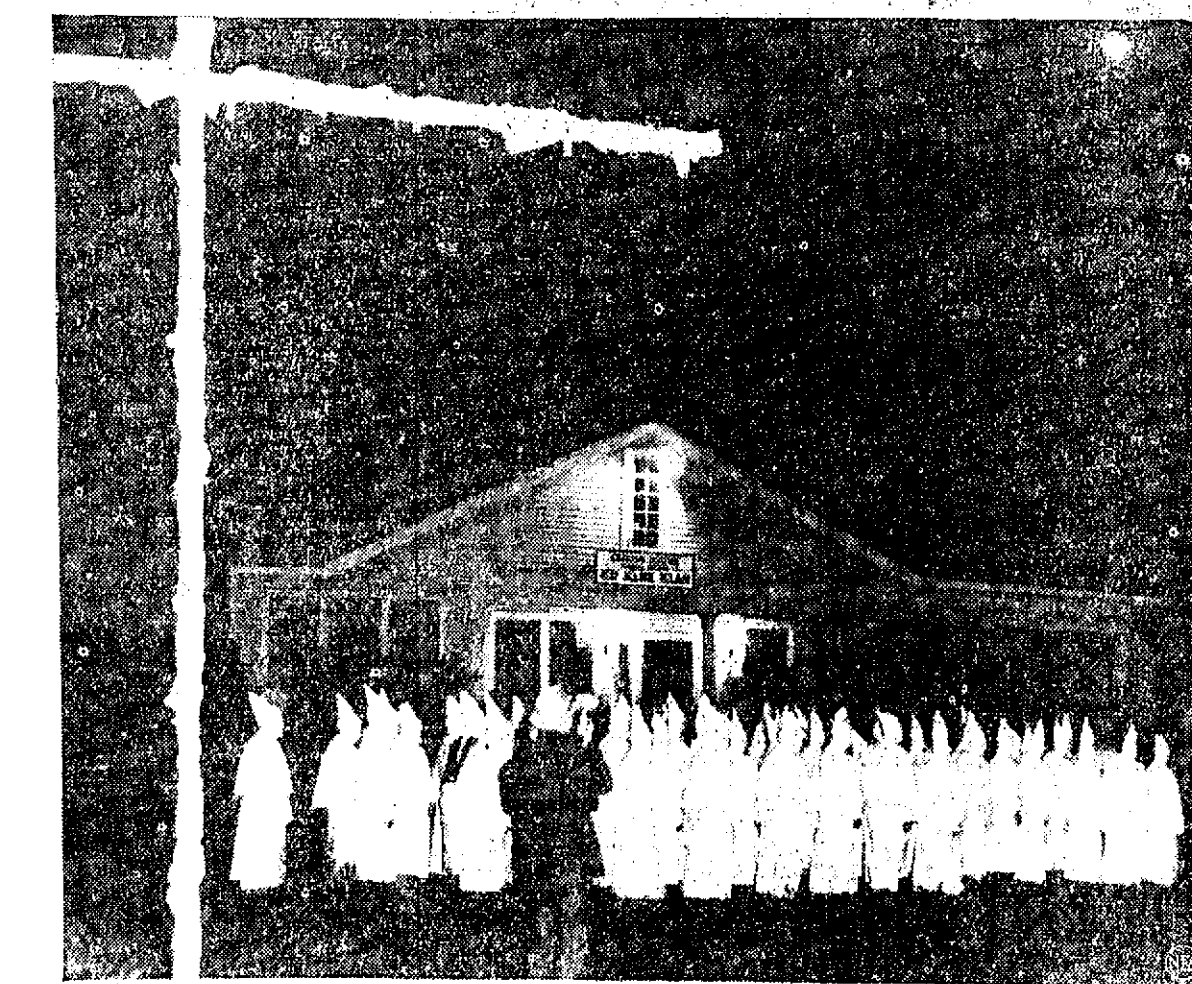

CALL FOR SOUTHEAST ASIA PACT—Black areas on map show the seven nations to which the Philippine government has issued a call for a permanent security pact against aggression. The proposal was made by Philippine Foreign Secretary Carlos P. Romulo to delegates of the seven countries at a conference in the summer capital at Bauglio. Although Romulo didn't describe it as an anti-Communist pact, all the countries are threatened by Communist aggression and the delegates made no mistake of his intent.

SUPERBOMBER CARRIES ITS OWN SPARES—Two complete spare engines, ready to install, are carried in nacelles (arrow) attached to the underside of the fuselage of this B-30-B Superbomber, seen at Fairfield-Suisun Air Force Base, Calif., after its first military test flight. Carrying spare engines makes the long-range bomber more self-sufficient when operating far from home base.

MORE BILLIONS TO BOLSTER FREE NATIONS—President Truman has asked Congress for $1,222,500,000 to continue the program of turning free nations to impress Russia with the "impossibility" of trying to take them over. The Newsmap above shows where the funds for fiscal year 1951—slightly less than the $1,314,000,000 voted for fiscal 1950—would be allocated. The President also asked special stand-by authority to help countries not specifically mentioned—in case of a serious emergency affecting the security of the United States.

THEIR CROSS REMAINS UNBURNED—Hooded Klansmen marched for the first time in over 15 years at Jackson, Miss., but they bowed to the local five safety laws when it came time to burn their symbolic cross. The marchers are seen leaving the parade ground with their 20-foot rag-wrapped cross unburned. They obeyed the order of Imperial Emperor Lycurgus Spinks not to burn the cross, after Police Chief Joel D. Holden cited an ordinance against "burning trash and other items between the hours of sunset and sunrise."

LONDON SILVER MARKET PROVES "GOLD MINE"—Under this unimpressive mass of rubble of a bombed-out safe-deposit building in London lies a fortune in silver. It's a thriving market for antique silverware. The unique business, which took over the unbombed strong rooms, has become a top attraction for American visitors to London because the devaluation of the pound has made British antique silver a "good buy" and no duty is asked on items made before 1830.

DOROTHY DIX

Living With Parents

Dear Miss Dix: My daughter is soon to be married and her father and I want her to start out alone in her own home. Her fiancé is at the present time assisting financially in his home. In his home there are his mother, father and younger brother. His mother feels that he ought to continue to contribute to the home and live with her after they are married. My daughter does not have to live there. Here father has told her he will assist them so that they can have their own place and that would enable the young man to still continue to help his people. Do you think that this young couple should start their married life with the groom's people?

A WORRIED MOTHER

Answer: I think that the greatest mistake that any young couple can possibly make is to go live with either the bride's or the bridegroom's parents when they get married. It is simply jeopardizing their whole future lives. Years and years after marriage, when they have adjusted themselves to each other and acquired the art of living together, they might risk it all through it is always fraught with danger but it is hazard that should never be taken at the beginning of marriage.

Disappointments inevitable

No matter how much the newlyweds love each other, no matter what fine and noble characters they are, the early days of marriage are bound to be full of disappointments and disillusion. They are going to find out that each has many faults and peculiarities that they never dreamed were concealed about their persons. Selfishness is bound to clash against selfishness. Habits conflict with habits. Bothe are bound to chafe at restriction of liberties they never valued until they lost them. And they should be off alone when they make these discoveries and fight their inevitable battle of supremacy. There should be nobod sitting on the sidelines cheering them on and bidding them to stick up for their rights.

A young couple should live alone when they are first married because being by themselves drata them closer together. It makes them dependent upon each other

Vein Cut by Milk Jar, Little Girl Dies

Beverly, Mass., June 12 (P)—A four-year-old girl died to death today when she tripped and fell on a quart bottle of milk clutched in her arms.

Police said a fragment of shattered glass pierced little Eileen Louis Hennessy's jugular vein. She died on the way to Beverly hospital where she was rushed in a police car.

defects, but it does not affect or love. Which is right?

Answer: The husband. Loving does not affect one's eyesight or intelligence. It does not make you see a tall, romantic looking chap in your short, tubby little husband or behold your wife as Miss America if she happens to be fat and red-headed and snub-nosed. But it doesn't keep you from loving them.

The only people who have the faculty of seeing just what they wish to see in another are mothers.

Youth Sentenced for Slashing Mother, Infant

Mountain Home, June 12 —(P)—A 15-year-old orphan boy was sentenced today to nine years of confinement for slashing a young mother and her infant daughter with a hatchet.

The lad, Albert Clay Roberts, pleaded guilty in Circuit court to kill.

Previously he had signed a statement that he broke into an apartment next door to him at Cotter, ten miles southwest of Mountain Home in north Arkansas, April 23 and attacked Mrs. Ralph Conley, 19 with a hatchet.

Mrs. Conley, whose husband was working on the night shift at a nearby dam construction project at the time, suffered numerous serious wounds on her head, neck and body. She recovered. Her one-year-old daughter, Sharyn, was injured slightly in the night-marish attack.

In pronouncing sentence, Judge John L. Bledsoe said he was not going to inflict the maximum of 21 years because he felt that Roberts, as an orphan, had not had the opportunities of an average youth. He admonished the youngster severely in a courtroom lecture, however.

Because of his age Roberts is to serve in the state boys' industrial school until Jan. 4, 1952, and then be transferred to the state penitentiary.

Boston May Do as Writer Predicted

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

"The Red Sox won't win the pennant this year," the man said.
"They fold up against the strong clubs."

The man was a Boston football writer. The remark was made right after Boston had lost the poor
St. Louis Browns in a record
1-0 game.

Food probably is the wrong word
but there is no denying the Red Sox have had miserable luck against the first division clubs this season. In 23 games against the Yankees, Tigers and Cleveland Indians, the Sox have won nine and lost 14. That's a cellarlike .394 percentage.

Red Sox's Tigers heaped insult on injury yesterday when the league leaders used two of their leaders who pitched nine innings apiece. Not since Cleveland's Gene Bearden beat them in the '48 pennant playoff game had an enemy southpaw been able to pitch the distance and win in Fenway park.

Southpaw Hal Newhouse scattered 10 hits to beat Boston, 6-2, in the opener. Lefty Ted Gray allowing only four hits in nine innings of sterling relief ball, to gain credit for the 9-6 triumph in the second game.

The defeat was the fourth in a row for the third place Red Sox who now are six games behind the Yankees and five and a half behind Detroit. The Yanks kept pace with Detroit by sweeping both end of a doubleheader from the Browns, 1-0 and 4-2.

St. Louis' soaring Cardinals widened their first place margin in the National league to two games over Brooklyn by crushing the New York Giants twice, 8-1 and 5-2. The best the Dodgers could do was divide a pair with the Reds in Cincinnati. The Brooks won the opener, 5-4, but the Reds came back to win the nightcap, 8-5.

Chicago's Cubs tied Boston for twice in Chicago, 5-4, in 10 innings and 2-1. The White Sox, Chicago's American league entry, also won two games, whipping the Senators in Washington, 8-3 and 5-4.

Cleveland and the Athletics divided a doubleheader in Philadelphia. Three runs in the 10th enabled the Indians to win the first game, 6-3. A seven-run seventh inning won the second for Philadelphia, 9-6.

A near-sellout crowd of 34,000
saw Newhouse and Dobson duel evenly for seven innings of the opener, but the Tigers broke a 2-2 deadlock in the eighth and added three runs in the ninth to give Newhouse his fifth victory and Dobson his fourth defeat.

Fred Hutchinson was the Tiger star in the second game. He was clubbed for eight hits and five runs in five innings. Gray took over after Detroit's lead, tallied three times in the fifth to knot the score at 5-5. Each team scored once in the seventh. Thereafter Gray and Parnell, Boston's sole hurler, pitched goose eggs until Vic Wertz homered in the 14th. It was Gray's sixth triumph and Par-nell's fifth loss.

Vic Raschi and Fred Soford
turned in fine pitching performances for the Yankees. Raschi yielded only three hits in hurling
his first shutout and seventh triumph.

Bob Lemon pitched his seventh triumph for Cleveland. Tenth inning homers by Al Rosen and Jim Hegan off Bobby Shantz were the winning blows.

The double triumph by the White Sox ended a seven game victory streak of the Senators against Chicago. Ray Scarborough, ex-Senator, was clipped for 11 hits but staggered through for his fifth win
in the nightcap.

Lefties Howie Pollet and Alpha Brazle pitched the Cards to their fourth straight victory over the Browns, 3-0.

Don Newcombe gained his sixth triumph for Brooklyn in the opener against the Reds. A six-run Cincinnati seventh against Dan Bankhead helped Ewell Blackwell gain his fourth victory in the nightcap.

Hank Sauer's long fly scored Bob Ramazotti from third with the winning run for Chicago against Boston in the opener. Ron Northey's homer helped Bob Rush win
a mound from Warren Spahn in the outterpiece.

Monday Matinee

Washington's Al Ulbrickson will be competing against five of his former pupils in the Marietta regatta Saturday. James Junior R.
Rogers, who pitched four nohit ters for Curtis, Ala., high this spring, has accepted a nomination
from Georgia — as a footballer.
Halleck's grass race course is being rebuilt this summer to provide banked turns. Artie Dor-rell, who is out of the promoting business in Texas, has taken a couple of amateur boxers under his wing. And with true managerial conservatism, he remarks that 15-year-old Paul Jorgensen is
"the hottest thing I have seen in years," and that George Easter-lings, a reformed college boxer,
"will be a national sensation within two years."

Just a Young Man's Game

Dave Williams, threetime golf champion of Chicago's Medinah club, will be 70 years old in August. But he's serving his sixth term as handicapper committee chairman to make sure the younger lads don't gang up on him.

Cards Abide by Ruling of Top Officials

St. Louis, June 12 —(AP)— Fred
Saigh, president of the St. Louis Cardinals, has changed his mind about bucking the top officials of organized baseball.

He is willing to cancel a scheduled Sunday night game with Brooklyn July 10 if National league rules so dictate.

Saigh conceded yesterday he had backed down, disclosing that he had put the issue up to Louis Carroll, National league counsel.

If Carroll rules that Sunday night games are against league regulations, that will be the end of it, Saigh said. An answer is expected from Carroll today.

The Cardinal chief last Friday
defied orders to cancel the game,
which would be the first Sunday night contest in major league history.

Baseball Commissioner A. B.
Chandler and National League
President Ford Frick had ordered the game called off. Chandler said such a performance would not be in the best interest of baseball and Frick declared there were rules against Sunday night games.

Saigh's appeal to Carroll was disclosed as churches themselves joined in the controversy. St. Louis third Baptist church in St. Louis wired Chandler yesterday that he should abide by his decision and prohibit Sunday night games which might interfere with religious services. Rev. A. M. Neumann, president of the metropolitan church federation, said the Sunday night
baseball questions would be considered by his group this week.

He said that personally the Sunday night baseball deal wasn't a bad idea. Other ministers joined him. They said they had heard no protests from their congregations.

Pine Bluff Gets Back in Win Column

By The Associated Press

While the once mighty Pine Bluff Juggies got back into a winning stride after dropping five straight,
second place in the Cotton States
changed hands again Sunday.

As the Judges sneaked
by Natchez 75, Hot Springs outlasted
Monroe 54 to go into a virtual tie for second, but three percentage points ahead of the Sports.

The Greenwood Dodgers, in their first appearance wearing shorts
and nylon shirts, downed Greenville 32 and El Dorado conquered Clarksdale 43.

An umpire and two players were casualties in the Pine Bluff Natchez contest. Umpire Frank Guzzetta was overcome by heat. Natchez Managershortstop Dick Adkins
was hit in the back by a pitch and his replacement, sorearmed Jim Gilbert, hurt his arm again. The Judges did a workmanlike nine hit job on three Natchez pitchers and Pine Bluff's Bob Pickens had to be rescued by Cotton Hill in the seventh.

Outbit 85, Hot Springs took advantage of three Monroe errors to hand Cliff Coggins his third loss against eight wins. Hot Springs Fletcher Montgomery also had to be saved in the seventh, Danny Caccavo doing the job.

Tony Cincoita turned Greenville back with three hits, one of them Catcher Al Nordgren's homer, at Greenwood. Lou Lumberto stole home for the Bucks' first tally and two singles, two walks and two errors provided the other two.

Southpaw Res Wehant fashioned
a neat fivehitter for El Dorado
and all three of Clarksdale's runs were unearned. Singles by Vince Liberto, Lefty Joslin and Frank Quicinto provided El Dorado's
winning runs.

Games today:
Pine Bluff at Monroe.
El Dorado at Greenwood.
Greenville at Clarksdale.
Hot Springs at Natchez (2).

New Bishop to Cooperate With Hungary

Budapest, Hungary, June 12 —(P)— Hungary's largest diocese of the Lutheran church has a new bishop who favors cooperation with the country's Communist-led government.

The new prelate, the Rev. Laszlo Dezsery, 36, succeeds former Bishop Lajos Ordass. Ordass's last month was released from prison after serving almost 20 months of a two-year sentence for a curio speculation. He had been removed from office by a special church court on April 2.

(Both Ordass's conviction and his removal from office were protested by the Lutheran World Federation. He was convicted of failing to report a $500,000 gift from U. S. Lutherans. The federation said the gift amounted to $200,000, that it was transmitted through the Hun-

Dezsery in 1948 attacked Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, head of Hungary's Roman Catholic hierarchy, as a representative of "royalist, feudal absolutism." Mindszenty now is serving a life sentence for treason.

As Lutheran Bishop Dezsery took office, Hungary's Catholic bishops in a new pastoral letter replied to a recent speech in which Education Minister Jozsef Revai threatened abolition of religious instruction in secondary schools and curtailment of Catholic orders of monks and nuns.

The bishops urged parents to request religious instruction for their children for the coming school year. They said recent action against some cloisters and monasteries usually had been the work of irresponsible non-official groups.

Heroic Work Rescues Four From River

Pittsburgh, June 12 (P)— The raging waters of an Allegheny river spillway took four lives yesterday but rivermen who refused to quit rescue efforts in the face of terrifying odds pulled four others to safety.

One riverman, 50-year old Hull Wright, died a hero.

He tried desperately to save six persons who rode over a 11-foot dam in their 25 foot cabin cruiser 15 miles northeast of Pittsburgh.

The four who survived a night of horror were battered and beaten, inside and out.

They clung to the cruiser as it bobbed furiously in the foaming, swirling spillway. For seven hours they watched scores of rescue attempts fail.

A blimp, a seaplane and even men in a row boat tried to reach them.

Just as it seemed their cruiser would capsize they were pulled to safety by the volunteer crew of a small river towboat, piloted by a veteran skipper who willingly took his chance with fate. He won his gamble — and lost his boat as it overturned in the maelstrom.

There were six on the cruiser when it missed a lock and sent over the dam.

Wright and his boss, a veteran lockmaster James W. Offenden, went to their rescue in an 18-foot skiff.

The small craft was smashed to pieces and Woodenden and Wright jumped to the cruiser.

Then, one by one, the four who perished began going overboard, Woffenden declared.

"It was a nightmare. I tried to get everybody to hang on tight and wait for help but it wasn't long before one of the women was swept overboard. The next was Hull. Then another woman fell in. Finally a man disappeared. That left four of us.

Authorities listed the lost, in addition to Wright, as Mrs. William Fisher, 29; Mrs. Carl Kreig, about 30, wife of one of the rescued, and William Lahey, Jr., about 25.

The rescued were Woffenden, Sallee and young son come home with them and will be her for a 10 day visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graham and son returned home Saturday from a trip to points in Texas.

James McHugh, 24, owner of the cruiser; Charles Reiley, 34, and Jack Kreig, 28.

All but McHugh and Lahey were residents of the Pittsburgh area. McHugh, son of the head of a Chicago construction firm, has been employed on a building project here. Lahey, also from Chicago, worked for the firm and lived with McHugh.

"I've lost my wife, I've lost my wife," muttered Kreig as he was carried to a stretcher. Then he cried unashamedly until given a sedative.

B. T. Fooks to Head Laney's Campaign

Little Rock, June 12 (P)— Ben Laney, seeking to return to the Arkansas governor's office after a one-term absence, virtually completed selection of his campaign leaders today.

He named B. T. Fooks, Camden business man, as his financial manager.

Yesterday Laney disclosed selection of Arml Taylor of Clarksville as his campaign manager. Taylor has served in that capacity for the former governor before.

Laney said he may open his speaking campaign next Saturday night and might announce the site later today.

Another weekend announcement disclosed that former attorney general Jack Holt, who lost the 1948 governor's race to Gov. Sid McMath, would support Laney's candidacy.

Speaking of Holt today, Laney said: "He will carry no official ofice in this campaign but will help me whenever we believe it will be most beneficial."

At a meeting with some 300 supporters here yesterday, Laney described the McMath administration as "the most incompetent state administration in my memory."
